THE GREYSTONE

The Senior Class

Of

ANNVILLE-CLEONA HIGH SCHOOL

Annville, Pennsylvania

Presents

The GREYSTONE

We Dedicate

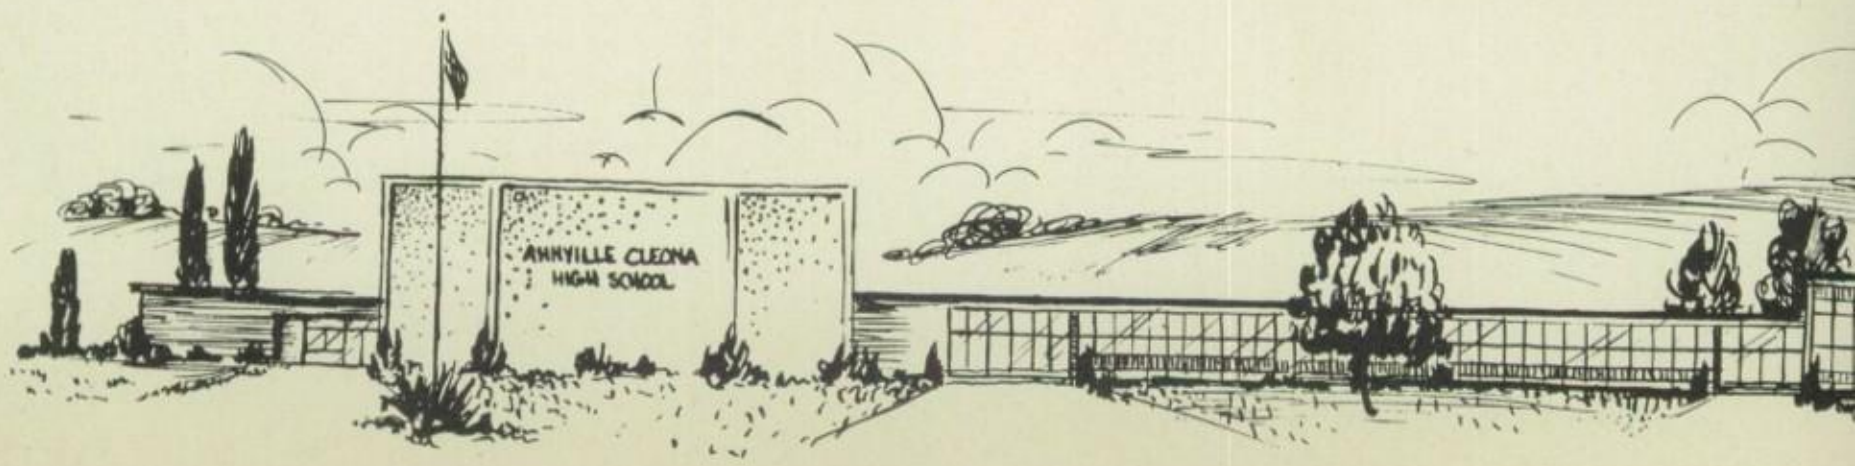
We, the Class of 1957, proudly and respectfully dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Merle L. Keim, supervising principal of the Annville-Cleona Schools. By his faithful and untiring devotion to the advancement of education in our community, he has exerted a far-reaching influence upon our lives.

ADMINISTRATION

Standing: Howard A. Weaver, Merle L. Keim, supervising principal, Thomas Gates, solicitor, Irvin G. Kreider, Weston S. Evans, E. D. Williams, David K. Shroyer, Donald Klopp, Joseph M. Kreider, Walter L. Noll, and Amos S. Brandt.

Board Of

These men, whom we as students seldom see, compose the Annville-Cleona Joint School Board. This board is made up of the members of the school boards of the four districts which function jointly as the Annville-Cleona Joint School District. Without the efforts of these men, our educational opportunities would not be a reality. They have given much time and energy, and spent many evenings at school instead of at home, to provide the plans and facilities for the operation of our high school.



Seated: Adam D. Miller, Harvey T. Bomgardner, Elra A. Worcester, Mark H. Tice, Floyd B. Whisler, V. Earl Light, D. Clark Carmean, and H. Glenn Smith.
Not pictured: M. Byrd Nye, Chester C. Stroh, and Russell Heilman.

Education

A school board of this present age must live in two worlds, the world of the present and the world of the future. Our present school, with its educational program directed by carefully selected principals and teachers, is evidence of the provisions made for the present. As evidence of the vision and foresight of our board of education, we present the sketch below of the proposed Annville-Cleona High School. Countless hours of careful planning, revision, checking and re-checking have gone into the preparation of this building, which is now on the verge of becoming a reality.

SENIORS

Class History

In September, 1951, our class began its long stay in high school with a full class of 110. We elected as our class president Larry Hess. We all found that Junior High is so much different from grade school. There were also the added attractions of dances, clubs, chorus, and a long list of other extra-curriculars. We had our first try at final exams at the end of the year and finished the term with a class trip to Hershey Park.

Eighth grade came quickly, and we started the year with elections of student council members and class officers. Kenneth Yorty was chosen to be our class president. The novelty of entering Junior High had worn off and we settled down to study.

Ninth grade was an important year. As before, we elected officers; Karl Ginder became our president. Our first big event was the Valentine Dance at which Barbara Heisey and Claude Ebersole reigned as King and Queen. We finished Junior High School with the usual exams and transfer exercises.

We had finally become members of Senior High. Our class president was Ben Dowdrick. We ordered our class jackets early in the fall. For the Annual May Day we elected as our class representatives to the May Court Elaine Crider and Kathy Bowman. We showed our activity in Senior High by participating in basketball, soccer, cheerleading, and council.

As Juniors we again elected Ben Dowdrick as our president. We ordered class rings, of which we are very proud. The traditional May Day was not held, but we had a Snowball Dance with a court of honor. Our Junior representatives were Kathy Bowman, Molly Starr, Kenneth Yorty, and Claude Ebersole. Our Junior class sponsored the annual Junior-Senior Prom. We were the first class to hold our Prom at the College Gym. Our theme was "The Sands and the Seas." It was well attended, and we were very proud of its apparent success.

Finally -- we were seniors. We were all busy studying, making future plans, and becoming engaged! At our last Snowball we elected Kathy Bowman as our Queen, Kenneth Yorty as King, and Barbara Heisey, Molly Starr, Claude Ebersole, and Larry Meyer as members of the Court. Our class president was a man of experience -- Ben Dowdrick. The Prom given by the Juniors was a very enjoyable one. After a few very busy weeks -- exams, S-L-S Night, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and parties -- we bade good-bye to dear old Annville High School. We know that wherever our future will lead us, we will remember Annville, its students, and its faculty fondly.
